

Castillo de Elios

0470

Cosecha 2020

Reflection of Castilla la Mancha's singularity

COSECHA RED WINE

IGP Vino de la Tierra de Castilla

100 % tinta del país (tempranillo)

75 cl

THE TASTE OF CASTILLA

On a small, elevated terrain, open to the four winds, the ancient Castillo de Elios reigns over the immense Castilian plateau vineyards. At its feet, under a just sun and scarce water, the cencibel (tempranillo) vines extract the land's essence from a hard, thousand-year-old landscape, allowing us to savour all the strength and intensity of its climate.

Light | Fruity | Mature | Intense

Body: ●●○○○

Sweetness: ●●○○○

Tannins: ●●○○○

Acidity: ●●●●○

Alcohol: ●●○○○

Alc.: 13 % vol.

Serving: 12 - 14 °C

Consume: before 2025

Pairing: pork chop with asadillo manchego roast peppers

Ruby-red in colour, with violet reflections and pale structure. Aromas of ripe red fruit (cherries and blackberries), flowers (violets) and spiced (black pepper) over a fragrant background of liquorice and fennel. On the palate, it is fresh, round and with a long, fruity finish.

Similar wines from our winery:

Ibericus Garnatxa Negra, Senderos del Monteviso and Silvestre.

