NATURAL ATTRACTION

Red wine made from our older garnacha vineyards, grown under the protection of the impressive limestone Pàndols and Cavalls mountains which contour the horizon. A unique rough and winding terrain, worked and moulded patiently by its inhabitants throughout its existence. Land tilled to cultivate grapevines, olive fields, almond trees, and dry-stone banks. Heroic architecture. Ancestral understanding.

Purple in colour with ruby reflections. Aromas of ripe red fruits (raspberry and redcurrant) on a balsamic background (rosemary and pine needle), floral (violets) and aniseed. Reminiscent of orange peel, lollipops and liquorice. In mouth, it is sweet, flavourful with a slightly bitter finish.
