LADY OF THE MEDITERRANEAN

Garnacha blanca is a variety with a marked Mediterranean profile perfectly adapted to the Iberian Peninsula's high temperatures and low precipitation. It offers us nicely coloured, quite aromatic wines with body. Some unique characteristics which we want to perpetuate across the Maset Ibericus range: the winery's commitment to biodiversity and the conservation of native varieties.

Lemon-yellow in colour with green-hued reflections. Aromas of ripe white fruit (apple) and tropical fruit (pineapple) atop a citrus (lemon), floral (orange blossom) and herbal background. Candy (banana) recollections. On the palate, it is sweet and intense, with a slightly salty finish.
