The first wine of the harvest

COSECHA WHITE WINE

GOOD OMENS

After the frenzy of the wine harvest, the flower must of xarel·lo and moscatel ferment in our peaceful cellar. This rest ends on Saint Martin's Day, when this novel wine is tasted for the first time. A hymn to the landscape, the land and its people. Aromas of grape, flowers and happiness in a wine ideal for any moment. The fresh and sincere welcome of a new vintage.

Pale yellow in colour with soft green-hued reflections. Aromas of white fruit (pear), stone fruit (vineyard peach) and grapes on a perfumed floral background (almond blossoms). Reminiscent of lemon and fresh-cut herbs. In mouth it's fresh and fruity, with a refreshing carbonic accent resulting from its noticeable youth. Slightly bitter finish.
